

'Invite Your Boss Event'

This event will educate employers on how to support carers at work with the aim of reducing workplace stress, staff turnover and recruitment costs in addition to providing employers with a greater insight about what it takes to care for a child or family member with special needs.

All carers will receive a free taster massage before re-joining their boss. Massage also available for bosses!

ASNA is a registered charity (Reg. Ch. No: 1100447) supporting people living with disabilities and special needs.
